

Example of the design options we explored for our prototype to address the question about when a hearing is needed

One of big pain points was that local authorities were marking most applications as urgent even when they were not.

Details of urgent hearing

Give details of why you're asking for an urgent hearing
A court will only hear your case urgently if you can give good reason for the urgency.

How soon do you need an urgent hearing?

Do you need a hearing within the next 48 hours?

☐ Yes ☐ No

User said that they need more than two options. They didn't like having only two options. Within 48 hours or 18 days.

User liked version 2, which gives more options, but some said that the word “urgent” is a nebulous term and can be misinterpreted.

Version 3

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying `http://publiclawtest.herokuapp.com`. The page title is "When do you need a hearing?". The form contains two main sections. The first section asks "Do you need a hearing in the next 24 hours?" with radio buttons for "Yes" (selected) and "No". Below the "Yes" option is a text input field labeled "Reason". The second section asks "Do you need a hearing between days 1 to 12 of the public law outline?" with radio buttons for "Yes" (selected) and "No". Below the "Yes" option is a text input field labeled "Specify reason and dates for consideration" with an example: "For example, need hearing before 30 July 2018 as the child is being released from hospital on 31 July 2018." Below this field is a section titled "Type of hearing?" with two checkboxes: "Contested ICO" and "Urgent preliminary case management hearing".

New applications

Make your allocation on the applications made as "needs allocation". After you have made your allocation, an email is sent to judge for approval. After judge approves your allocation, you can issue standard directions.

Application number	From	Date	Status
C110A #00388	Borough of Brent	10 Jul 2018	needs allocation
C110A #00382 URGENT	Borough of Fulham	10 Jul 2018	needs allocation

After

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the address bar displaying `http://publiclawtest.herokuapp.com`. The page content includes a welcome message for Laurie Taylor, a 'Dashboard' title, and two main sections: 'New applications' and 'Cases in progress'. Each section contains a table of data and a descriptive paragraph. The 'New applications' table has columns for Application, Hearing, From, Type, Date, and Action. The 'Cases in progress' table has columns for Case, Status, From, Type, Date, and Action. The interface is clean and modern, with a dark header and a light main content area.

Welcome Laurie Taylor
